Acknowledgements

All aspects of the production of this book have been under the direction of and coordinated by Loretta Dalton.

The Parish acknowledges the kind generosity of The Raffiani Family Foundation which has underwritten a large portion of the production costs of this book.

Tom Brennan, the compiler of this history, has been a parishioner of Immaculate Conception for almost sixty-four years. He is a graduate of Immaculate Conception School; while in school, he was an altar boy. He is a former lay trustee and also a former chair of the Parish Council. He has also served on the Finance Committee and is a former eucharistic minister and commentator/lector. He is also a past president of the ICS Home-School Association. A lawyer, he is a past president of the New York Catholic Lawyers Guild. He is also a past president of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. At present, he is director of the Hearst Family Trust Office in Manhattan. He and his wife, Elizabeth, live in Eastchester; they have four children (all of whom graduated from ICS) and six grandchildren.

He, in turn, acknowledges a deep debt of gratitude to all those who helped in this undertaking. However, he hesitates to mention them by name lest he inadvertently overlook some of them. Nevertheless, he says that they know who they are and that he thanks them all.
